WOOD SEES GOOD FUTURE FOR VOLUSIA

WATTS IS COMING FAST NOW SAYS DELAND BANK CASHIER

FARMERS WILL SOON BE HAUL-ING TRUCK TO DAYTONA AND SHIPPING IT TO MARKET BY THE TRAINLOAD.

That Volusia county will in a few years be as good as the rice and other prosperous farmers will be hauling their truck to Daytona and shipping it by the trainload, is the opinion of S. A. Wood, cashier of the Volusia County bank of Deland, who was a Daytona visitor yesterday and today.

Mr. Wood recently took a drive through the rich hammock land lying adjacent to Daytona and he declares that it equals if not surpasses the famous delta land around Sanford. "Good land is becoming rare," declared the Deland banker, "and the increasing population of the United States must go somewhere.
Most of the land around Daytona is of the rich hammock nature and soon the people will awaken to the great possibilities for farming in this locality."

Mr. Wood is bubbling with enthusiasm over the great possibilities of Volusia county and commented on the great progress of development during the past couple of years. He said: "Daytona, Deland and New Orleans have made wonderful growth and it is my opinion that the three cities of the county are only beginning on a great era of prosperity like dreamed of even by the most optimistic. Not only the great army of tourists, which is every year increasing, but the increasing settlers will help in this great development which I believe will surely come."

"I cannot express my enthusiasm too strongly," continued Mr. Wood,
"and I want to predict that within five years Volusia county will nearly double in population, and the vicinity of Daytona will have a good share of it."

DAILY STOCK MARKET REPORT.

dish and Reading were both a point rally, with May at $10.37 and July at $10.49.

By noon stocks were making still further advances, business was brisker and good buying was the order.

Wheat Opens Lower

SITUATION NOW SERIOUS IN ENGLAND

MINERS PROPOSE AMENDMENT TO BILL NOW IN PARLIAMENT

PREMIER ASQUITH ANNOUNCES THAT GOVERNMENT WILL BE UNABLE TO ACCEPT PRO-POSED AMENDMENT.

LONDON, March 22—The coal strike situation in England was again plunged into serious complications today, when Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons that the government would be unable to accept the amendment to the minimum wage bill, fixing the minimum wage at $1.25 for men and 50 cents for boys, proposed by the miners' union.

The executive committee of the miners passed resolutions not to accept the bill as a medium settling the strike unless it provides for definite pay.

The announcement of Premier Asquith today is considered a victory for the mine owners.

today offered the operatives a flat ten per cent. increase in wages. The

TOWN, DIG THROUGH BRICK WALL TO GET THE MONEY AND THEN GET AWAY.

BEREA, Ohio, Mar. 22—Robbers blew the safe in the Bank of Berea early this morning and it is believed they made their escape with $20,000. Some place the amount even higher than this. The burglars had to dig through a brick wall to get the money. They left no clue.
Later it was discovered that the robbers missed the bulk of the money in the bank vault, but took the money from the safety deposit boxes. The full value of the loot has not yet been determined.

is now known that 82 miners lost their lives in the explosion in the Saw Bosse mine Wednesday afternoon. Up to this time 25 of the miners have been rescued alive

of these can be still alive, but the rescue work is being pushed as rapidly as possible.

STEAM SHOVEL TRAIN WRECKED IN GEORGIA.

MACON, Ga., March 22—A steam shovel train on the Central of Georgia railroad was wrecked at

THEATRICAL SEASON WILL CLOSE TONIGHT.

With the presentation of "The Mummy and the Humming Bird" at the New Daytona theater by Paul Gilmore and his company tonight, the theatrical season of 1911-12 will close. Manager Sneed believes he has selected a particularly strong show for the windup of the season and the company should be greeted by a full house.

RACE WAR THREATENS IN ALABAMA

OVER WOUNDS OF POLICEMEN WHO WAS HACKED BY NEGRO

BLACK MAN IS NOW SURROUND-ED IN SWAMP BY WHITES, WHO DECLARE HE WILL BE
LYNCHED WHEN CAPTURED.

CATHERINE, Ala., March 22—A race war threatens here because of the fatal wounding of Policeman Howard, who was horribly lashed with a hatchet while searching the home of Leo Bates, a negro, for stolen goods.

Bates fled to a swamp, where he is now surrounded by a band of whites, who declare he will be lynched when captured.

The negroes in this section are arming themselves and declare there will be bloody revenge if Bates is killed.

ONE OF ALLEN GANG TAKEN AND HUSTLED OFF TO PRISON

OFFICERS AND HURRIED TO HILLSVILLE.

HILLSVILLE, Va., March 22—
Sidna Edwards, one of the Allen gang, which shot up the Carroll county circuit court last week, was captured by the officers early today.
Edwards was captured 12 miles northwest of Mt. Airy. He was and hustled to this place and placed in jail. The other members of the gang have been located and the capture of all the gang is expected to tendent of the cotton exchange, and

CONDITION OF OWENS IMPROVES

INJURED MAN BETTER TODAY HAS A CHANCE TO SURVIVE

IN SPITE OF HIS DANGEROUS IN-JURIES THE VICTIM OF THE ACCIDENT SHOWS CHANGE FOR THE BETTER.

The condition of C. W. Owens, who was dangerously injured in an automobile collision on the beach Thursday forenoon, showed a slight change for the better Friday and with the improvement came an increased possibility for him to survive the accident.

In spite of the terrible injuries sustained in the smashup and the shock to the man he spent a better night Thursday than it was expected
he would by the physicians in charge and this morning his condition showed a slight change for the better.

When Owens' car turned over after the collision the steering wheel was torn off and the driver was caught in the wreckage. His abdomen was torn open, the muscles and flesh were all torn away from the inside of one lower limb, leaving the bone exposed, a large part of the flesh was stripped from one side and he was terribly crushed and bruised. The main fear of the physicians was that he would not survive the shock and pain of the operation and sewing necessary to close the wounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Owens came here from Bayport early in the season and rented a cottage on South Ridgewood avenue. The small, yellow racing car driven by Mr. Owens has been a familiar sight in and about Daytona all winter. This is the car he was driving when the accident happened.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Owens had been in bathing near the Casino and Mr. Owens and Clinton Young climbed into the car for a ride up the beach. Mr. Owens did not take the trouble to change his clothing, taking the ride still wearing his bathing suit. It is said he was racing with another car from a point
this side of Ormond down the beach toward the Clarendon and was going at too fast speed to stop when the big Elmore car drove directly into his course. The opinion seems to prevail that the driver of the Elmore car was to blame for the accident.

Soon after the accident President Poter of the Hotel Clarendon took the matter in hand and placed men around the damaged cars to keep the people from tearing the two wrecks into pieces for the purpose of carrying away souvenirs.

Later Mrs. Owens gave orders to the Central garage to bring the wrecked racing car over to Daytona and take care of it. Soon after the accident the Ormond garage sold the wrecked Elmore to Tom Ditson for $100. Ditson will use parts of the damaged car for repairs on his Elmore. Both cars were soon removed from the beach.

BROKEN WINDOW PANE PROVES FATAL WEAPON.

BUFFALO, March 22—John Mayo, aged 29 years, jumped through a window in a boarding house in Lancaster today to elude two men.
When about half way through the men grabbed Mayo's legs, and in dragging him back through the broken window the jagged glass cut his throat from ear to ear. He died soon after.

Couldn't Understand Him
A young man just returned from college was out cycling one day when suddenly he came to a steep gradient. While descending he lost control of his machine and two men came and found him lying on the ground. When asked what was the matter, he replied: "Well, I came down that incline with the greatest velocity and lost my central gravity, and was precipitated on the hard macadamized road." "Away, leave him alone," said one of the men; "he's a foreigner."

Bishop Was Ready for Them.
A story is told of a certain Norman bishop, who preached so eloquently against the wearing of long hair before Henry I. and his courtiers, that they gave in on the spot and agreed to have their locks shorn. The bishop had then made their decision. It was wise prelate, who had provided for just such a contingency, pulled out a pair of shears from his sleeve and soon removed the curls of the whole court.

Showing Chinese Advancement.
Dr. Mary Stone, a Chinese girl, whose family dates back more than 2,000 years, is the first woman named in her family tree. This pedigree is contained in 12 large volumes and gives the history of the family for more than 2,500 years. Other women, daughters and wives, are designated by numbers. Dr. Stone was reared by missionaries and chose to become a physician.

PROMINENT PHYSICIANS ARE GIVING TESTIMONY

Among the prominent physicians who have recently endorsed Olor-o-no, the remarkable new antiseptic lotion that does away with dress shields, is Dr. A. D. Murphy, 12 West Seventh avenue, Cincinnati, O., who said: "During my twenty-five years of practice I have been called upon frequently to prescribe for a certain disease which is manifested by a profusion of odoriferous perspiration from the armpits and feet, and, in a measure, was unsuccessful until the antiseptic lotion known as Olor-o-no was introduced. I have investigated and find it contains no injurious drugs of any kind. During the past three years I have prescribed Olor-o-no almost daily and find it invaluable in all cases."

Great Premium Offer

The circulation of The Gazette-News is already large but the publisher is determined to add several hundred more names to the list and in order to do so makes several offers that you cannot afford to miss.

We want to give every housewife in this country a new pair of Trimmer Shears - one that we think you are out of doors of your house but we know that no woman has many pair of shears you have, you will appreciate a new pair, especially the Eureka Trimmer Shears, which is a superior shear in every way for the ordinary use of shears generally used in the everyday household.

This is not a phoney offer - we are not just a pair of shears to be given away, but it is a scheme, to force people to buying something they do not need. We have learned the value of the housewife's good will, and this will be rewarded by us in offering these.

Eureka Bent Trimmer Shears

We have brought excellent goods for distribution and those who do not respond to our offer immediately may not be able to get a pair. If you want to secure a pair

ORDER THEM RIGHT NOW

There are still a few of these shears left. This is a very limited offer and one that can be taken advantage of by everyone in this country, and we want readers to know that. We believe this offer will move more than satisfy the most exacting subscribers.

Send us $1.00, and six cents additional if you desire the shears mailed, and we will send you a pair of GAZETTE-NEWS for ONE YEAR and a PAIR of THESE SHEARS ABSOLUTELY FREE. This offer applies to other new subscriptions or renewals.

HIS IDEA OF A TREAT.

Mr. Boose—I hear you are being treated by Dr. Hoidt.

Mr. Wise—That's true. I've been going to him for a month and he hasn't bought anything yet.

HORNS OF A DILEMMA.

Jinks—I have hit on a new style of proposal and am in doubt what to do.

Blinks—Why?

Jinks—I can't decide whether to write a short story around it or try to capture an heiress with it.

Too Flattering.

"Flattery is dangerous to sensitive ladies," says the Wise Man. "I am always very careful in the matter, because one evening I told a lady that she was as sweet as honey, and the next day she had five."

Marks Upward Step.

If we can perceive beauty in everything of God's doing we may argue that we have reached the true perception of its universal laws.—Ruskin.

DIET AND HEALTH HINTS

SARDINES RECOMMENDED.

The "Lancet" says that sardines are to be recommended if only for the oil which they contain, even if the sardines are herring and the oil peanut or cottonseed oil. Most people, says this eminent authority, neglect to take sufficient oil, which offsets the injurious effects of excessive protein ingestion, and is otherwise beneficial. It is not to be supposed that the addition of uncleaned herring scraps or even of the genuine sardine of Sardinia improves the oil. Olive or peanut oil can be obtained more easily than sardines and with less liability of substitution.

DON'T WAIT

to see what someone else is going to do—get hold of some of this land yourself—do it NOW, before it's too late, for you know that

Average property is the line of advance of value in the greatest investment in the world. Fortunes have been made by some small ventures picked with discrimination.

We have for sale several tracts that can be bought at average prices now. But development under way will make other land paying in a few weeks the most money, and it is impossible to predict the increase in value within the next few months.

It gives you more local news than all other local papers of Volusia combined. Many of the little personals about persons with whom you are acquainted will also interest you.

The subscription price is but $1.50 a year, and we give you a useful pair of SHEARS as a premium if you subscribe before the supply is exhausted.

It will tell you of the improvements that are being made during the summer when you are at your northern abode.

Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, March 21.—There is no appreciable loss in the tourist season on the beach up to this time. The daily arrivals from all south balance the departures, and cottages, as well as hotels and boarding houses, are greatly in demand from those who have spent the winter in the interior of the state. The peninsula towns have not only enjoyed the largest tourist season in their history, but there is every indication that this prosperity will be followed by a building boom, the like of which they have not known before. A car line to DeLand to connect with other electric lines which capitalists are getting ready to project, will make Seabreeze and Daytona Beach as popular summer resorts as they are winter resorts.

In the meantime the transfer of town property continues brisk. On Monday C. G. Gage purchased of C. A. Phillips a lot on Grandview avenue between Seabreeze and Harvey avenues. Harry A. Horn and J. C. Butler made a sale of six lots, two of which were south of George K. Sweeney's home on Coates street, and four on Grandview avenue, to W. F. Bleekman, a winter resident. Harry A. Horn sold to V. C. Grant lot 19, block 2, on Grandview avenue, south of Harvey street.

H. Q. Hawley is erecting a merry-go-round on the lot adjoining his residence property on Seabreeze avenue. It will be run by a gasoline engine of Mr. Hawley's own patent.

The Library club gave a St. Patrick's entertainment at the home of Mrs. George P. Johnson on Seabreeze avenue on Monday afternoon, which was very enjoyable as well as profitable to the society. The house was crowded and the refreshments as well as the program was appropriate to the day.

John DeWitt left Saturday morning for his old home in Findlay, O., to visit his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Keene and daughter, who have been spending the winter in Mrs. Wright's cottage, left Tuesday on their return north.

The government authorities at Washington are putting in a postal savings department in the Daytona Beach postoffice, which will open for business April 8th.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Wallace of Indiana, recent arrivals from the interior, have taken rooms in the J. J. Bishop house.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Eudon of Milford, Conn., came over from Sorrento for a week's visit with his brother, Arthur Eudon and family on Seabreeze avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Trowbridge of Decatur, Ill., who have spent the winter in the Hibbard flats, left Tuesday morning by boat for St. Augustine, on their way north.

Mrs. Stoneman and daughter, who have been spending the winter in Daytona, have taken rooms at the Bishop house for a month's stay on the beach.

Mrs. Faucett and friend, Miss Dart, of Astabula, O., arrived Monday from St. Petersburg for a month's stay on the beach, and are located in the Hibbard flats.

Mrs. E. C. Hibbard is enjoying strawberries from her kitchen garden. This being the first yield the crop is not large but the berries are very fine and well flavored. When berries are 50 cents a quart and are scarce at that price, there is good economy in home cultivation.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins of New York who occupied a cottage at Daytona during the winter, came over to spend the latter part of the season on the beach and are located in the Hibbard flat.

Mrs. Colburn and daughter, Miss Colburn, of Canada, have secured rooms with Mrs. Henry Strother on Seabreeze avenue.

Mrs. Etheridge and son, William, pleasant sojourners on the beach, left by boat Tuesday morning, en route for Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mr. Willis of Altona has been spending a few days this week on the beach, looking up a business proposition.

Mrs. Corilla Banister of Texas came up from Palm Beach for a few days on the beach. Mrs. Banister is the author of "Modern Miracles," or "Psychic Power Made Plain," and "Self Building by Common Sense Methods." She gave a number of readings at the various hotels during her stay here.

Mrs. Long and little niece of Columbus, Ohio, who have been at the Gabies, Daytona, came over for a month on the beach and are located in rooms at the Ohio house.

Last week E. A. Branch sold to N. P. Wilkie of West Virginia, a lot belonging to S. B. Hubbell on the corner of Harvey and Coates avenues.

Mrs. J. H. Warner of Michigan, who has been wintering at St. Petersburg, came up from the south Tuesday and has secured rooms with Mrs. J. H. Selden on Seabreeze avenue.

Miss Martha Fox and Mrs. W. H. Turner of Sanford made the trip to the beach by automobile Sunday to visit Miss Ruth Coates and her parents, and are having a very enjoyable outing.

Dr. Bruner and wife and friend, Dr. Mason of Macon, Ga., who were visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Freeman at Pinehurst, left this week on their return home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Stewart entertained at cards Friday evening at their home on Bath street in honor of Mr. Stewart's brother, Edw. L. Stewart of Chicago, who is here on a visit to his mother and other relatives.

D. F. Fuquay has just completed a shed building for the protection of irrigation machinery on the C. M. Carrier truck gardens one mile north of the Seabreeze corporation line. A. T. Hall has charge of the farm, and has recently set out a number of citrus and other fruit trees.

Lon's Catch

(Copyright, 1917, by Associated Literary Press)

Lon Herrick was up in the hills trapping that week. Therefore it chanced that out of the whole community at Three Cheers he was the sole male absent when Mrs. Buss arrived. She came without warning, even as a stray cat, and had settled herself in the Inglenook of Three Cheers' heartsome hearth by the time Lon came back.

"She's a fine specimen of a woman, Lonnie," said Noonan tentatively, yet with a sort of submerged enthusiasm. "About thirty-eight, maybe."

"What did she come after?" asked Lonnie, who was a sober and cautious individual.

"To make a living, same as the rest of us." She's opened up a sort of home bakery.

"It's the first hook they put into us," said Lonnie. "Is she fat?"

"She's what an onlooker might call nicely distributed," said Noonan, blithely.

It happened that Lonnie was away most of the hunting season, and only came into camp at intervals. In the spring, when the water burst the ice on the rivers, he came home, and the long wait had only made Mrs. Buss more indifferent to his existence.

"Is that him?" she asked, when Noonan pointed him out, stalking leisurely up the main street of Three Cheers, his old coonskin cap, with its dangling tail, hiding his face from sight, his three hounds at his heels. "The poor fellow."

"And why do you call him that, Mrs. Buss?" queried Dan, tenderly. "He's a fine figure of a man."

"I'm thinking what a lonely life it is he leads," said Mrs. Buss. "And dangerous, too, no doubt."

"The lumber trade is more so. I've been shaking hands with death all winter long and no body to sympathize with me."

"Go 'long, you artful creature," laughed back Mrs. Buss, merrily. "You haven't missed a day coming down here. Go tell Lon Herrick I want to see him."

"He won't come."

"Try him."

Dan carried the message and brought back the answer dutifully. It was simple and withal uncompromising.

"He says he does his own cooking."

Mrs. Buss' lips set firmly and then parted in a laugh. And her answer was enigmatical.

"He doesn't know me," she said.

"Where do the trappers and hunters around these parts sell their pelts?"

"There's a fellow comes through about this time and buys them up—from Laramie. I can get his name if you want it."

"Get it," said Mrs. Buss. About a week later Three Cheers was startled to find an announcement in Mrs. Buss' window. It stated that therein was the agency for Barclay & Burden, furriers, of Laramie, followed by a tempting list of prices for pelts.

Lon considered the situation from all points. It looked strategic to him, and yet he was a modest man, and knew not the limit of a woman's patience. Several times he spread out his season's catch and looked them over—deer, bear, fox, wolf, otter and coon skins. He resented Mrs. Buss' assumption of authority. It had been part of the yearly excitement, the visit of the buyer to his cabin, and the swapping of stories over the sale.

Yet the second week after the sign appeared in the bakery window he went down to the camp bearing his catch with him and a look of resignation.

He had purposely chosen mid-afternoon for his visit. The other men would be up in the timber then. He wanted as few witnesses as possible.

"Come right in!" called Mrs. Buss cheerily, as his long shadow fell across her threshold. She lifted a smiling, contented face from her knitting. "Why, hello, Lonnie," she said. "Got a pretty good catch there, haven't you?"

Lon said nothing, but he dropped the pelts.

"Shut the door, dear," added Mrs. Buss. "And don't get nervous. I'm not going to hector you a bit. Sit down and talk."

"Hadin' we better look the pelts over first?" asked Lon bewilderedly. "Plenty of time. I only took the agency so as to make sure you'd have to come here to see me. The day I got here, and found out you were away, I just switched round and changed my name and went to work. Lonnie, don't you get lonesome?"

"I do my cooking," Lonnie started to explain, then out of the corner of his eye he caught a glimpse of the table with its freshly baked pies and cakes, and huge loaves of white bread.

"Not this kind. Mostly corn cakes and bacon."

"You could go hunting in the season," began Mrs. Herrick, late Buss. She glanced up, met Lon's eyes, and blushed slowly. "You ought to be ashamed of yourself to make me set all the traps. Why don't you say something?"

Then Lon rose awkwardly, and reached toward her.

"There ain't anything to say, honey," he laughed. "I never heard a caught creature that was given to conversation. You've got me alive."

Why Old Myths Survive.

The destroyers of fine dramatic myths tell us nowadays that the Caliph Omar did not burn the ancient library of Alexandria, and therefore did not have a chance to say that all the books in it that agreed with the Koran were superfluous, and all that disagreed with the Koran were pernicious. Doubtless the perennial freshness and vitality of the tale are due to an everlasting normal human hatred of weed-grown, literary graveyards.

Ninety Years in One Service.

Perhaps the world's record for service is held by the occupant of a grave in the churchyard at Battle, Sussex, England. This is Isaac Ingall, who died in 1798 at the age of 120. For ninety years he was in the service of the Websters of Battle Abbey. Sarah Thompson of Belfast served 83 years with one family, dying in 1895.

Friday Dickens' Lucky Day.

Charles Dickens was not one of those who are superstitious concerning Friday. It was on Friday that many of the good things came to him, and it was on that day that he entered upon, paid the price and took possession of Gads Hill, the one thing he cherished more than all of his other possessions. It was Gads Hill that he had gazed upon when a wee bit of a boy, with a hope then giving little signs of fruition, that he might live to own it some day; and it was Gads Hill whose walls he covered with mirrors in almost Oriental magnificence. —Boston Record.

Christmas in France.

Christmas in France is not a special day for family meetings and merry-making. It is essentially a religious festival.

Home Influence on Writing.

Dr. Huxton has been held responsible for many human frailties, but it is only lately that it has had to shoulder the blame for poor handwriting. "Even more than temperament and copy books environment influences a child's handwriting," said a handwriting expert. "If he sees a respectable writing or a clear business hand on tables and desks at home he will imitate that unconsciously. If only an uneducated scrawl meets him there, he, too, will scrawl, let his instruction at school be ever so thorough."

Irony of Fate.

The irony of fate crops out in the fact that the men whose portraits would look best in the magazine never succeeded in making it worth while for the magazine to publish portraits of them.

Acres property in the line of advance of value is the greatest investment in the world. Fortunes have been made by some small venture picked with discrimination.

We have for sale several tracts that can be bought at acreage prices now, but developments under way will make this land double in value within the next year, and it is impossible to predict the increase in value within the next few years.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY.

WE have a tract of one hundred acres running from river to ocean within one-half mile of Seabreeze.

WE have a tract of forty-five acres running from river to ocean within a quarter of a mile of Seabreeze.

WE have a tract with about 2000 feet frontage on the river and 1500 on the ocean within a mile of Seabreeze.

WE have a tract of 20 acres with 600 feet of river frontage half a mile from Seabreeze.

These Four Tracts Can Be Bought at Acreage Prices NOW but not for long.

We shall be glad to show them and to quote you prices if you mean business.

We can also quote you a price on 86 acres running from river to ocean just south of and adjoining a large tract that has been bought for development purposes.

We also have several residences that must be sold and will be sold at prices below their actual cost.

HOTEL PORTERS SKATING CARNIVAL AT THE ARCADE.
The skating carnival given at the Arcade Amusement hall last night under the auspices of the Daytona Hotel Porters' association was one of the best attended and most enjoyable of the entertainments held in the Arcade this season. A large number participated in the various features of the carnival, and a large number of prizes were distributed.

The egg race for ladies was one of the most interesting events and the barrel race for men kept the spectators in a roar of laughter. The prize for the egg race was won by Miss Schwartz of Daytona Beach and Fred Matthews secured the barrel prize. Miss Macdonald of this city and Boston, won the prize for the most graceful lady skater and Donald Morgan the prize for the most graceful of the men. The prize for the most graceful couple went to Miss Ida Pellett and Geo. Johnson of this city. E. B. Goodsell of Bridgeport, Conn., was chairman of the awarding committee.

Better Keep the Boy.
At nightfall the junior partner's exultation of the day changed to chagrin and he clamored noisily for the errand boy's dismissal.
"Better think it over," the senior partner advised.
"Why waste time in thinking," the junior retorted, "when he's got to go? Here I am, lying awake every night for a week planning an effective window decoration, which is turned into a laughing stock the first day by the stupidity of that boy, who leaves three yards of blue woolen dust rag draped around silver tankards and trays of diamonds."
"Well," said the elder jeweler, "people stopped and looked, didn't they?"
"Yes, but what of it? That dust rag?" growled the junior.
"That's why I advise you to keep the boy," advised the senior mildly. "If it hadn't been for him I am afraid nobody would have looked at all."

Unprofitable Sport.
"Possums are abundant around Watsboro," says the Luenburg Tribune, "but a man in that neighborhood went out hunting the other night, and after his dogs got after something he cut down two trees and finally ran his own cat into the dining-room at his own home."

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw started for home Friday. Sickness at home was the cause of going so soon.
Mrs. Mahie Gwinar came down from Daytona to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tedder.
D. E. Lyon drove down to New Smyrna Thursday.
The Literary society met in Ridgewood hall Thursday. The subject for the occasion was "Florida." Miss Milburn recited a piece on Florida written by one of her old pupils; Mrs. Knappe recited an original piece; Mrs. Thomas sang Swanee River; Mrs. W. C. Howes played Massa's in the Cold, Cold Ground and finished by singing Dixie. It was a very jolly meeting and will be remembered by those present.

LITTLE NELL WAS ORIGINAL
DeQuincey's "Our Lady of Tears" Did Not Suggest the Character to Dickens.

It is remarked of Charles Dickens that no modern writer was less open to the charge of having received suggestions from the characters and plots of his novels from others than was he, and this for the reason that his plots and characters were chosen, not from books, but from people and incidents in the living world about him. Some time ago, however, an English author thought that he had found in DeQuincey's essay, "Our Lady of Tears," the suggestion for the beautiful pathos of Little Nell, in "The Old Curiosity Shop." A little investigation, however, showed that DeQuincey's essay was published in 1845, while "The Old Curiosity Shop" was published five years before. The extract here given from DeQuincey's essay is interesting:
"The eldest of the three sisters is named Mater Lachrymarum, our Lady of Tears. The sister it is that carries keys more than papal at her girdle, which open every cottage and every palace. She, to my knowledge, sate all last summer by the bedside of the blind beggar, him that so often and so gladly I talked with, whose pious daughter, eight years old, with the sunny countenance, related the temptations of play and village mirth, to travel all day long on dusty roads with her afflicted father. For this did God send her a great reward. In the springtime of the year, and whilst yet her own spring was budding, he called her to himself. But her blind father mourns for ever over her; still he dreams at midnight that the little guiding hand is locked within his own, and still he wakens to a darkness that is now within a second and deeper darkness."

RIGHT CHILDHOOD IS MODEST
Well-Bred Youngster Does Not Think That It Knows Everything, Says Ruskin.

THINK TOO MUCH OF MONEY
Many Persons Lose Chance of Happy Marriage by Exaggerating the Value of Wealth.
Scores of people lose their chances of being happily married through making an unnecessary obstacle of money. The importance of it is often exaggerated. Many a man hesitates to propose to a girl because of his small income. Very often much misery, misunderstanding, and tangled lives result from the silence. More unfortunate love affairs are the result of what has not been said than of spoken words.
When a man has a small, sure income, and a prospect of increase, there is no legitimate reason for his not speaking of his love; no reason, for that matter, to prevent marriage. People are so desperately afraid, though, of beginning married life in a small way. They fear the sacrifices which they will be called upon to make of the criticism to which they will be subjected. Many years of happiness are lost in this way. It is such a mistake for young people to want to start marriage in the state that their parents are ending it.
To delay marriage until a "comfortable" income is available is to prove something lacking in the love.—Answers.
